

Clinical Video Competition

Submission rules

The videos should be presented in digital format and should follow the structure below:

1. Title of the video, Authors and Institution
2. Objectives of the procedure
3. Scientific background
4. Presentation of the case. Clinical images
5. Clinical procedure performed step by step
6. Immediate results (7 to 10 days)
7. Results in the short and medium term (it is advisable to present the results at 3 months and a year)
8. Discussion and conclusion

In any case, 75% of the presentation should be in video format.

When submitting an application, the author agrees to give the rights to the EAO to use his/ her video on its different communication platforms (social media/ Online Library/Live Broadcast).